

HORSE THEFT

LEYBURN

At the last sittings of the Petty Debts Court, before W.C. Cardew, Esq., PM., J.C. Snell Esq., JP., and B.Hudson Esq. JP., sixteen cases were disposed of.

At the Police Court on the 20th instant, John Ward was brought before the Bench, charged with stealing a hores, the property of Ephraim Neal. A considerable amount of evidence was taken, showing that the prisoner had ridden the horse, and he was committed for trial at Toowoomba on the 4th day of December next.

 Date: Saturday, 9 December 1876

 Place: The Darling Downs Gazette and General Advertiser (Toowoomba, QLD: 1858-1880)